John Henry Hopkins (1861-1945)

1 I sing a song of the saints of God, _____ 2 They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, and _____ 3 They lived not on - ly in a - ges past, there are pa - tient and brave and true, who toiled and fought and his love made them strong; and they fol - lowed the right, for hund - reds of thou - sands still, the world is bright with the lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew. And Je - sus' sake, the whole of their good lives long. And joy - ous saints who love to do Je - sus' will. You can one was a doc - tor, and one was a queen, and one was a shep - one was a sold - ier, and one was a priest, and one was slain meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea, in church, or in trains, herd - ess on the green: they were all of them saints of by a fierce wild beast; and there's not an - y rea - son—or in shops, or at tea, for the saints of God are just

God— and I mean, God help - ing, to be one too. no, not the least, why I should - n't be one too.
 folk like me, and I mean to be one too.

Hymn at Communion

1. In our day of thanksgiving one psalm let us offer for the saints who before us have found their reward;
when the shadow of death fell upon them, we sorrowed, but now we rejoice that they rest in the Lord.
2. In the morning of life, and at noon, and at evening, he called them away from our worship below.
but not till his love, at the font and the altar, had clothed them with grace for the way they should go.
3. These stones that have echoed their praises are holy, and dear is the ground where their feet have once trod;
yet here they confessed they were strangers and pilgrims,
and still they were seeking the city of God.
4. Sing praise then, for all who here sought and here found him,
whose journey is ended, whose perils are past:
they believed in the light; and its glory is round them, where the clouds of earth's sorrow are lifted at last.
